Attention: Mr. Arthur Dunne

Gentlemen:

This letter will confirm our telephone conversation of yesterday at which time we advised you that Chubb & Son Inc. as managers of the Sun Insurance Company will henceforth be taking an active interest in the further prosecution of the above captioned action.

It is our understanding that the matter of Szyfer vs. Philip Morris will not proceed to trial until approximately May or June, 1966 and that at the present time the case is awaiting assignment of trial date. We will appreciate it if you will keep this office advised as it progresses toward trial, and we would like to discuss the case in your office at your convenience shortly before trial date.

Very truly yours,
